

Dreyfus

BROAD AT SECOND

Specialists in Apparel for Women & Misses

Suggestions in House Apparel

from

Japan—France—America

The very newest, unusually attractive necessities for rest wear

N negligees—Direct from Japan

A variety of styles to meet woman's individual choice. Some showing elegant simplicity by the use of touches of hand embroidery—others more elaborate with soft, shadowy laces. Come in soft woolsens and silks; China silk, chiffon cloth over messaline, crepe de chine; in pale blue, cream, pink, violet and black—

$5.50, $8.50, $12.50 to $32.50

Crepe de Chine Negligees

Slender, straight line effects—a large variety of trimming combinations; wide bands of pretty shadow laces, fine Valenciennes. A charming assortment in pink, light blue, gray and rose. Price range—

$15.00 to $35.00

House Gowns

Dainty, refined types. They come, too, in dark colors for practical wear. Fitted and semi-fitted; plain or accordion-plaited skirts. Dresden chalis, crepe albatross; fancy lace or messaline band trimmed—

$5.50 to $19.50

Quilted Silk Robes

Delightfully Japanese. Very attractive for house wear and for invalids. Many are hand-embroidered in quaint designs and colorings; some in plain quilted styles, with or without trimmed collar. An exceptionally pleasing variety of colors—

$8.50 and $12.50

Japanese Silk Kimonos

Just the thing to slip on at home.

All colors, navy and black or lighter shades, with bright contrasting floral patterns; in soft silks—

$9.50 to $18.50

Hand-Made Dressing Sacques

of soft albatross, in the dainty colors, light blue, pink, lavender, gray and white; special—

$3.50 to $5.95

Bath Robes

in the favored Terry cloth and eiderdown. Soft messaline trimming, hand-trimmed hems, with or without the large sailor collar. Special values at—

$3.00 $4.50 to $8.00

Quilted Silk Jackets

for cool mornings. Choice of dainty hand-embroidered or plain jackets, in red, navy and black—at

$3.95 and $5.50

Silk Wadded Vests

to wear under the coat—light weight and warm; black lined lavender; black lined white, and all white; vests sleeveless—

$1.50

Special for This Week Only

100 Petticoats in Messaline. Made of the same quality of silk as used in our $5.00 Petticoats, and made just as good—seams finished and well tailored. A complete assortment of plain colors—

$2.95

DURHAM

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., November 30.—Mrs. R. A. Newland, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. J. Griswold for the past few days, has gone to Newbern, where she will visit a short while before returning to her home in Tennessee.

Mrs. A. F. Hunk, of Fayetteville, has been visiting Miss Nellie Fuller the past week. She returned home Monday.

Mrs. W. M. Jones, of Asheville, after visiting her sister in this city, Mrs. R. H. Cowan, has returned to the mountains.

A. F. Haggood is a Richmond visitor this week.

Rev. Thomas L. Trotter, associate pastor of St. Philip's Church, who has been in Tarboro for the past eight days, assisting in a mission there, has returned to his Durham charge.

Miss Mattie Cadd, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned to her home in Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williamson, of Perrimouth, Va., who have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. G. W. Green, returned home Tuesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Green.

Rev. S. S. Best has returned from Salem, Va., where he officiated at the marriage of his brother, Charles Best, who on Wednesday morning took as his bride Miss Annie Echelene Grovet.

The Classic Club of Trinity College held its regular meeting Friday evening. The purpose of this club is to encourage the study of the classics both as regards the language and literature. At this meeting a paper on the "Gordian Knot" was read by P. R. Murray.

Mrs. John S. Cunningham entertained the Senior Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at her home on Parrish place.

After an animated game of auction bridge, a social course was served. Those present were Mrs. J. M. Manning, Mrs. P. C. Graham, Mrs. J. M. Manning, Mrs. J. S. Manning, Mrs. L. Lockholder, Mrs. W. M. Fallon, Mrs. Arch. Chastain, Mrs. J. Harper Erwin, Mrs. N. M. King, Mrs. C. C. Thomas and Mrs. Gil-ber White.

HARRISONBURG

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., November 30.—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lupton are spending ten days in Richmond and Newport News.

Mrs. R. W. Bond, of Staunton, was a guest this week of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Richardson, at Keokuktown.

Mrs. George Triplett has returned to her home in Alexandria, after a visit to her father, J. W. Tallaferra, at Mossey Creek, and the home of Rev. E. L. Folk, in Harrisonburg.

The Massachusetts Chapter, D. A. R., met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ed. C. Marta. The topic was "Early Spanish Explorers."

Mrs. G. J. Heatwole and sister, Miss Elizabeth Porter, have returned from a visit to the former's brother-in-law, Dr. T. O. Heatwole, in Baltimore.

Mrs. A. H. Johnson recently visited relatives in Alexandria.

Miss Mary Carpenter, daughter of former County Treasurer E. W. Carpenter, has returned from Washington. Recently Miss Carpenter underwent an operation for appendicitis at Providence Hospital.

The Yancy-Rosenberger wedding on Thursday night was a social event of the autumn. Among those who entertained during the last ten days in honor of the bride party were Miss Katherine Williamson, Miss Margaret Peale, Mrs. C. R. Oberfel, Mrs. Ernest C. Lineweaver and Dr. T. C. Firebaugh and Toler C. Lemley.

Mrs. T. B. Menfies, of Waynesboro, recently visited her mother, Mrs. Fannie Martin, and her sister, Mrs. J. C. Sibert.

Mrs. George Chisman was the guest this week of her brother, Judge G. G. Gratian.

CULPEPER

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Culpeper, Va., November 30.—Lieutenant L. W. Jennings, U. S. N., spent the week-end with his family.

Misses Sallie Anderson and Lula Sutherland left on Tuesday for New York, where they spent the Thanksgiving holiday.

Miss Flora Mosby, who has been visiting in Farmville and Lynchburg for several months, has returned to her home.

Miss Mildred Hill, of Brandy, and Mrs. Charles Forbes, of Charlottesville, spent the week-end with Mrs. Max Samuelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Thrift, the latter formerly Miss Crimora Payne, have returned from their wedding trip and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Turner Rafter, at Brandy.

Mrs. Lewis P. Nelson, Jr., is at home after a visit of ten days to her mother, Mrs. Shackelford, of Rappahannock County.

Mrs. E. J. Nottingham and Miss Cora Nottingham, of Brandy, were guests of Mrs. Severn Nottingham this week.

Mrs. Edgerton, of Petersburg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. R. Robertson, on Jameson Hill.

Mrs. Tucker Chelf entertained the Bridge Club on Friday afternoon. Those playing were Mesdames Samuelson, Booker, Hudgins, Lewis, Nottingham, and Misses Anderson, Sutherland and Tamm. Mrs. Clyde Lewis made the top score and won the prize, a most attractive brass buffet lamp.

Dr. Carter Cole, of New York, spent a few days with his sister, Miss Fannie Meade Cole, last week.

FAYETTEVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fayetteville, N. C., November 30.—Misses Jessie and Margaret McMillan were the hostesses to a number of their young friends Wednesday afternoon at their home on Hay Street, complimentary to Miss Teresa McMillan, of Jacksonville, Fla. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with pink carnations, and the game of auction was played at eight tables. At the close of the game a salad course was served by Misses Annie Tate Morgan and Frances Green and Mrs. James S. McNeill.

At her home on Haymont, Saturday morning, Miss Annie Tate Morgan entertained the members of the Wood-Be-Wise Club at an "old maid" luncheon, in honor of her cousin, Miss Kathleen Walker, of Spray.

The guests were welcomed at the door by Misses Mamie Holt, Harriet Hardison and Frances Green, who wore quaint old-maid costumes. The game of old maid was played, and of those playing at the four tables, Miss Teresa McMillan, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Miss Annie Wright Huske, of Washington, were awarded prizes, the former for the distinction of being the "old maid" oftentimes and the latter for being the "old maid" not at all.

One of the ancient mystery plays, "The Little Pilgrims and the Book Beloved," was given in the parish house of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church Saturday evening by the children of the church. The play was staged under the direction of Miss Kate Cheshire, of Tarboro, sister of Bishop Joseph Cheshire, and was witnessed by a fashionable audience. Thirty-six children and several older girls and boys comprised the cast. The costumes were strikingly appropriate, while an invisible choir was used with remarkable effect.

One of the prettiest social compliments of the season was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. A. E. Rankin and the Misses Rankin to Mrs. Claude Wharton Rankin and Mrs. G. Elmer Betts, both brides of a few weeks.

The home on Russell Street was adorned with holly, white chrysanthemums and white bells, effectively combined. Miss Elizabeth Rankin, Mrs. Claude Rankin, Mrs. Betts, Miss Isabelle Williams, Miss Lydia Holland, Miss Annie Rooney Pemberton, Miss Annie Wright Huske, of Washington, D. C., received in the east parlor. Mrs. A. E. Rankin, Mrs. John D. Brown, Mrs. J. C. Bruton, Mrs. Henry Rankin, Mrs. J. F. Gilmore, Mrs. J. R. Boyd were in the west parlor. The guests were welcomed by Misses Zola Rankin, Mary Gorman and Hattie Taylor. Misses Eleanor Huske, Maggie McArthur, Annie McArthur, Mrs. Edwin H. Williamson, Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Blanche Boyd, of Concord, assisted in doing the honors. Ice, cake, coffee, bon-bons and almonds were served in the dining room, where Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Brock presided.

APPOMATTOX

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Appomattox, Va., November 30.—The Appomattox Agricultural High School gave two days for Thanksgiving, and many of the teachers and pupils left to spend the day elsewhere.

Mrs. Estel Thornton and Annie Harwood went to Richmond for the teachers' conference. Miss Pocahontas Wray to Lynchburg; Miss Annie Hobson to Brookland; Professor and Mrs. Lindsay Crawley to Farmville and Cumberland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeter Darmon, of Norfolk, spent several days with Mrs. J. B. Atwood last week.

Friends from Hollins are visiting the Misses Atwood this week. Miss Mary Cartwright left to-day to visit her parents at Charlotte Courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGill and daughter, Bettie Ambler, accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Jones, all of Atlanta, are spending several weeks at the home of Colonel and Mrs. R. F. Burke.

Miss Louise Gills returned to-day from a visit to the university, where she has been visiting her brother, Jamie, a student there.

Walter Durham, of Richmond College, spent Thanksgiving with his mother.

Mr. D. N. Freyman left Monday to

A Message to the Christmas Shopper

Only a little over three weeks remain in which to do the Christmas shopping. Into that short space of time must be crowded the selection of appropriate gifts and fortunate indeed are those who complete their purchases early.

Do YOUR shopping early this year, and select PRACTICAL gifts—gifts that will not be soon forgotten. Our stock is replete with substantial and practical gifts that are in good taste and that will give full measure of pleasure to the recipient.

Buy your presents NOW and we will hold them subject to your order for future delivery. Make your purchases now and PAY FOR THEM AFTER CHRISTMAS, OR AT ANY TIME THAT IS CONVENIENT. Here are a few suggestions for Christmas presents:

Give "Him" a TURKISH ROCKER

Regular Cost $25.00

SPECIAL

$14.75

Large, massive design and the acme of comfort. Upholstered in best quality chase leather. Best steel springs and guaranteed construction. The very thing for the library, smoking room or the sitting room, and a gift that "He" will appreciate.

Special Sale of BRASS BEDS

Here's a sample of the exceptional values offered during this sale:

Regular $15 Brass Beds at $9.75

Full size, with heavy 2-inch posts, durable construction. Plain but very attractive design. Finish is lacquered and guaranteed not to tarnish. Other styles at reduced prices up to $72.00.

Two Gift Pieces That Will Bring Pleasure

$30.00 DRESSER for $22.75

Made of mahogany or golden oak. Large French plate glass mirror, beveled. Artistically carved standards. Swell front.

$28 CHIFFONNIER, $20.75

Made of mahogany or golden oak, highly polished. French plate glass mirror, beveled. Ample drawer room. An artistic piece of furniture.

Make Pettit's Your Christmas Gift Store

Pettit and Company

FOURTH & BROAD STS

THE STORE THAT LIVES UP TO ITS ADVERTISING

INTERSTATE ADVERTISING AGENCY, Inc.

ONANCOCK

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Onancock, Va., November 30.—Rev. and Mrs. T. J. C. Heath, after a visit to Mr. Heath's parents, left for their new home, at Dendron, Wednesday.

Mrs. Nina Payne Nottingham and Mrs. Kellam, of Cape Charles, are guests of Mrs. Tully W. Parker.

Miss Constance S. Taylor is the guest of Mrs. Gary, at 514 West Grace Street, Richmond.

Superintendent G. G. Joyner was the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. J. Hanes, of Baltimore, the first of the week. From there he went to Richmond to be present at the Conference of Division Superintendents.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of Miss Alice Maud Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Mason, and John Cowan McCahan, in Baltimore, Wednesday, November 26. Mr. and Mrs. McCahan will be at home after December 1 on Sherwood Avenue, Raleigh.

Mrs. John W. Leatherbury and two children, who visited Mrs. Otto L. Parker, have returned to Fastville.

Mrs. Ernest Whitehurst, of Norfolk, was here this week.

Rev. E. Hines Gable and family left for Matthews Wednesday. The new pastor, Rev. L. H. Betts, with his family, has arrived and will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church South, Sunday morning.

James H. Kist is home from Richmond.

Mrs. L. D. Frankie Quinby is back from Atlanta. She has as her guest Mrs. Margaret U. Franklin, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Scott and little daughter, of Eastville, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Kelley.

Miss Emma Bratten, principal of the Napperville School, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bratten.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

For the cure of all the ailments of the bowels, such as constipation, indigestion, flatulence, etc. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Chichester, Philadelphia, Pa.